Covid-19 insurance for shipowners and charterers

The continuously evolving Covid-19 (Coronavirus) pandemic is understandably a growing concern for the global shipping industry. Since the outbreak. We have been working tirelessly with many insurance partners to help provide an insurance solution for the current crisis.

Now available through Acipio-Consult!

we have secured limited market capacity to cover owners and charterers for loss of earnings and additional expenses following quarantine of ships and strategic cargoes or closure of destination ports by authorities for situations relating to Covid-19.

Policy features:

- Coverage granted on a voyage by voyage basis
- Maximum 45 days duration per voyage
- Policy indemnifies owners / charterers for declared loss of hire sums and additional expenses up to an agreed limit
- Deductible structure as agreed by leading underwriter
- Voyage details / cargo as agreed per application form, particularly for oil and bulk cargoes
